Schedule D, Part III, Line 1 - The Burlesque Hall of Fame possesses a collection of approximately 3,150 pieces relevant to the history and development of burlesque performance. Pieces include costumes, stage props, photographs, promotional material, and personal effects belonging to performers, producers, and other figures in burlesque history. The collection is catalogued, using current national standards for numbering, describing, and recording collection data, according to the museum's Collection Policies and Procedures. The collection is held for research, education, and public exhibition in furtherance of public service, rather than for financial gain. The museum does not include either the cost or the value of its collection in the statement of financial position, nor does it recognize gifts of collection items as revenues in the statement of activities. Since items acquired for the collection by purchase are not capitalized, the cost of those acquisitions is reported as decreases in net assets in the statement of activities. The Collection Policies and Procedures dictate the acceptance, use and valuation of collection pieces and can be viewed at the following website:

Schedule D, Part III, Line 4 - The Burlesque Hall of Fame collects, exhibits and maintains burlesque costumes, photographs, film and video, books and publications, and other memorabilia. As the preeminent advocate for the art of burlesque, we present an educational experience for patrons while providing burlesque performers a platform and space to showcase their art. The collection is held for research, education and public exhibition in furtherance of public service, rather than for financial gain. The museum does not include either the cost or the value of its collection in the statement of financial position, nor does it recognize gifts of collection items as revenues in the statement of activities. Since items acquired for the collection by purchase are not capitalized, the cost of those acquisitions is reported as decreases in net assets in the statement of activities.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - A final draft version of the Form 990 is sent to each member of the Board prior to filing. The Board members are asked to submit questions, concerns or information to the Executive Director, Volunteer CFO or Treasurer.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - All Board members are asked to report conflicts of interest as they arise. Additionally, Board members and the Executive Director are aware of personal and business relationships throughout the community and are tasked with reporting or questioning those relationships throughout the year. Because of the intimacy of the community, conflicts of interest are easily identified and questioned by the Board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - The Executive Director undergoes an annual review and evaluation process which directs whether a salary increase will be offered. In years when financial health allows and the Executive Director's performance evaluation call for an increase, the Executive Director's salary is compared to salaries for similar sized organizations with a similar mission as well as those with different missions but similar budgets, staff size and other characteristics.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - All current governing documents are available to the public on the Burlesque Hall of Fame website and by direct request to the organization via email, phone call, postal mail or in person.
